Re: Julian Hormilla v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No. F-2024-3046014

Dear Secretary Homsher

On June 17, 2025, the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (“Commission”) issued its agenda for the public meeting scheduled for June 18, 2025. In that agenda, PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (“PPL Electric” or the “Company”) noticed that the above-captioned case was on the agenda and that Julian Hormilla (“Complainant”) filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision dismissing his Formal Complaint.

Neither PPL Electric nor its counsel has any record of being served with the Complainant’s Exceptions, despite the Complainant filing a Certificate of Service on the docket. That failure to serve the Company and its counsel is the reason why PPL Electric did not file Replies to Exceptions in this matter.

As such, PPL Electric reserves all its rights to contest the Complainant’s arguments in this proceeding or any subsequent appeals.
