RE: Julian Hormilla v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
F-2024-3046014

To All Parties of Record:

On December 2, 2024, my office served the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law Judge in the above-captioned complaint case. The Complainant filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision on December 23, 2024, but failed to serve the Respondent with a copy of their Exceptions.

Thus, the Respondent, PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (PPL), has not been served with the Complainant's Exceptions, and this Secretarial Letter will correct that error to allow PPL to file Reply Exceptions and avoid prejudice to any party pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.535. PPL will now have until the close of business (4:30 p.m. EST) on July 3, 2025 to file Reply Exceptions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Matthew L. Homsher'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Matthew L. Homsher
Secretary

Enclosure: Copy of Complainant's Exceptions
