EXEC. COMPLAINT. Spoke with Mrs. Bohnenberger (Pelagatti) regarding delayed billing concerns. Apologized for the oversight on my part and delay in following up with her. Mrs. Bohnenberger still was upset in regard to the 'delayed billing' issues. Mrs. Bohnenberger reiterated that she spoke with a former PUC lawyer who stated that the most PECO should be charging her is 6-months. I shared with Mrs. Bohnenberger the Ch. 56 regulations that outline we are able to bill a customer, dating back to 4-years, and offer an agreement on the balance for at least the length of time that she was delayed. In addition, I confirmed the account was billed with a supplier. I developed a spreadsheet for the delayed bills and calculated the difference between the supplier rate and PECO's price to compare. Since Mrs. Bohnenberger was unable to 'reasonably' switch the supplier timely, I am going to issue a credit adjustment to the account for $930.76 (difference between supplier PTC for both electric and gas v. PECO PTC for both electric and gas, dating back to bill period beginning 2/1/24 which did not generate until 1/13/25). I offered Mrs. Bohnenberger a payment agreement on the balance; however, she declined at this time and stated she would proceed with the filing of the PUC Complaint. I advised her of the informal complaint process steps, and that once the complaint is filed, ultimately a report will be sent to the PUC and she will be contacted once a final decision is rendered. I confirmed Mrs. Bohnenberger has my e-mail for additional questions.
