RE: Penn State University's Docket No. A-2018-3001882

Mr. Yalcin,

Penn State's 0.1-mile gas line was erroneously registered under Act 127. This 0.1-mile gas line is owned by Penn State and is routed to a Penn State owned building, the HUB Robeson Cultural Center. Natural Gas service to this building has always been provided by Columbia Gas through a Columbia gas meter and regulator set into the Penn State owned gas line. The Penn State gas line only serves the HUB building.

For these reasons, Penn State is requesting to cancel its Act 127 registration on this line.

Sincerely,

Robert Puzak
Director of Utility Operations
Penn State University
