Docket No. A-2025-3055543

Request for Information

1.) In your response to Question #1 in the 2nd data request dated June 17th 2025, you replied “I’d like to move regular cargo loads as well as personal goods like furniture”.

a) Please provide a DETAILED list of the “regular cargo loads” you intend to haul.

What is a “regular cargo load”?

b) Please explain “personal goods like furniture”. Whose furniture do you intend to haul? Is this your own, personal furniture? Who does this furniture belong to? Is the furniture new? Used? Please provide detailed information regarding your intent with “furniture” hauling.

NOTE To receive and keep a PUC Certificate, you must start reporting revenue.

NOTE The property application you filed with us will allow you to pick up new furniture from a store and it will authorize you for office moves (commercial). Should you desire to offer these services, we will continue to process this application. Should you move Household Goods in use, please file a HHG mover application in response to this Data Request. Please include the necessary fee.

I'd like to first state and repeat that I had $0 in revenue to report for the previous year for Loy Logistics LLC because I had a full time job. The only reason I'm in this situation with having to reapply for PUC certification is because my insurance failed to file for cargo. Instead of going back and forth on this efile, wouldn't it be easier to talk to someone over the phone. I can be reached at 610-504-8322.

To your first question. How can I give a detail list of cargo loads when I never got a load to run in the first place? My guess would be anything you can possibly fit on pallets that need to be moved from warehouses or factories. Suppliers that need to move product around.

To your second question, I now realize that's a separate application.

I'd like to close with saying to save myself money I chose to do this application myself this time around. I'm sure if you look into my file or first application it was done by a third party. I just figured I could be able to apply on my own and not have to deal with a third party. If I need to, please advise me if that would be a better option.
