

July 31, 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to formally notify you that ExecuDriver LLC is withdrawing its application for limousine service, originally submitted in pursuit of operating as a transportation provider.

As of July 31, 2025, ExecuDriver LLC has decided not to proceed with the limousine service operations. After careful consideration, the company has determined that it will no longer pursue business activity in this area and, therefore, no longer requires approval or licensing for such services.

We appreciate your time and attention throughout the application process. If any further information is needed to complete this withdrawal, please let us know.

Sincerely,

ExecuDriver LLC
