INTERIM ORDER GRANTING COMPLAINANT’S REQUEST FOR CONTINUANCE

By Initial Telephonic Hearing Notice dated June 26, 2025, an Initial Call-In Telephonic Hearing was scheduled for August 25, 2025, at 10:00 a.m.

I issued a Prehearing Order on June 27, 2025. The Prehearing Order directed the parties to comply with various procedural requirements and directed that a request to change the scheduled hearing should be sent to me at least five days prior to the hearing date, be in writing and state the agreement or opposition of the other party.

By email received on August 5, 2025, the Complainant, Lisa Linder, requested a continuance of the August 25, 2025, hearing. The Complainant indicated: that her husband passed away in October 2023; that her husband filed away documents; and that she is having difficulty locating a copy of her title insurance from May 1986. The Complainant explained she requires a continuance to provide her with additional time to prepare for the hearing. The Complainant advised that she informed PECO of her request for a continuance, and that PECO agreed to the continuance.

Paragraph 3 of my June 27, 2025, Prehearing Order advised the parties that they may request a continuance of the hearing if they have a good reason. My Prehearing Order further advised that “[t]o request a continuance, you must submit a written request (a “motion”) at least five (5) days before the hearing.” My Order further instructed that the motion should include: the case name, case number, and hearing date; the reason you are requesting a continuance; and the other party’s position on the request.

Based on the Complainant’s stated reason, and also because PECO agrees with the request, I find that that the Complainant has established good cause to postpone the August 25, 2025, hearing. Accordingly, the request is granted. A notice canceling the current hearing date and rescheduling it to a future date will be issued.

The parties are reminded that it is the Commission’s policy to encourage settlements (52 Pa. Code § 5.231). The parties are encouraged to continue to talk with each other to resolve this matter or some portion thereof.

THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the Complainant’s Motion for Continuance of the hearing in the matter captioned as Lisa Linder v. PECO Energy Company at Docket No. C-2025-3055420 is granted; and
2. That the scheduling staff of the Office of Administrative Law Judge shall reschedule this matter for a hearing and notify the parties in writing.
