

BEFORE THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

Shasta Patrice Brown, Executor of the Ren-Ira Michal Zuri-El Private Estate

Complainant

v.

Philadelphia Gas Works (PGW)

Respondent

Docket No.: C-2024-3050761

SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION TO COMPEL ARBITRATION – SUBROGATION NOTICE

Complainant hereby supplements the Motion to Compel Arbitration previously filed in this matter to give notice regarding subrogation, securitization, and creditor status.

1. Complainant is the living woman and the creditor/trustee for the legal name “SHASTA PATRICE BROWN.” The legal name is a constructive entity that holds no equity of its own. All equity, rights, titles, and interests flow back to the creditor.
2. Complainant expressly denies and rejects any presumption that Respondent or any third party acted as creditor to the legal name. Respondent provided no value; rather, Respondent has attempted to treat the legal name as debtor to extract performance while concealing fiduciary obligations.

3. Complainant further gives notice that any attempt to subrogate, securitize, bond, insure, or otherwise transfer this claim or docket without Complainant's knowledge or consent is void and does not diminish Complainant's right to remedy.

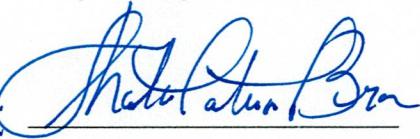

4. To the extent Respondent or any surety has monetized or securitized this docket, such action constitutes additional liability in equity in favor of Complainant, as the true creditor.

5. Arbitration under common law, administered by the American Arbitration Association as previously elected, shall encompass not only the direct acts of Respondent but also any third-party subrogees, insurers, or bondholders claiming derivative interest.

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully submits this Supplement to ensure the record is complete and to preserve Complainant's rights in arbitration.

Date: 22 August, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

By:

Shasta Patrice Brown
