1. APPLICATION OF TARIFF

1.1 APPLICATION

1.1.1. General

This tariff applies to Message Telecommunications Service (MTS), provided to business and residential customers, furnished by AT&T Corp. between points within the State of Pennsylvania, where:

- 1) instate Dial Station long distance calls are billed to the Customer's residential telephone account for which the initial subscription to AT&T is made through a local service provider other than AT&T, as specified in Section 6, following, and
- 2) calls are billed to the Customer's telephone account under the "Casual Calling Service" specified in Section 7, following.

Effective October 15, 2025, all Business Long Distance Service and Residential Long Distance Service will not be available for purchase by new or existing Customers. Existing Customers subscribing to long distance service can continue using the service and may cancel at any time.

6.1. GENERAL

The rates, terms and conditions in this Section apply to instate long distance Dial Station calls placed by Customers whose initial subscription to AT&T is made through a local service provider and the Customer has not yet received an AT&T Service Agreement. AT&T will issue an AT&T Service Agreement to the Customer upon notification by the local service provider to AT&T that the Customer has subscribed to AT&T as their primary interexchange carrier.

The terms and conditions that apply to the service provided under this Section will apply until the Customer of the service receives the AT&T Service Agreement or until the Customer directly contacts AT&T, whichever occurs first.

6.2. AT&T DIAL STATION INSTATE LONG DISTANCE

AT&T Dial Station instate long distance rates apply to calls billed to the Customer's telephone account for which the initial subscription to AT&T is made through a local service provider other than AT&T. Dial Station rates apply when:

- The person originating the call dials the telephone number desired and completes the call without the assistance of a Company Operator or the Company's automated operator system, and the call is billed to the calling station.
- The calling party cannot complete dial station call due to trouble on the telecommunications network and chooses to re-dial the call.
- A calling party re-establishes a dial station call that has been involuntarily interrupted after the station has been reached.
- A Company Operator places a call for a calling party who identifies himself/herself as being handicapped and unable to dial the call because of his/her handicap,
- A Company Communications Assistant completes a call between persons with hearing and/or speech disabilities who use a Text Telephone (TT) or its equivalent and hearing persons who use an ordinary telephone (the completed call is rated and billed as a call from the calling station to the called station),
- A Company Operator makes a call because no automatic recording equipment is available for dial completion.

7.1. GENERAL

AT&T Casual Calling Services permit callers to access AT&T's switched network for completion of their instate long distance Dial Station calls by dialing carrier access code 1010288 or 1010345. The rates, terms and conditions specified in this Section apply to instate long distance Dial Station calls billed under the following Non-Subscriber 1010288 Service, Lucky Dog 1010345 Service offerings, or any other AT&T-assigned carrier access codes.

7.1.1. Non-Subscriber 1010288 Service

Non-Subscriber 1010288 Service provides for instate long distance Dial Station calls placed via carrier access code 1010288 and billed to the Customer's main billed domestic telephone account that is not presubscribed to AT&T as the primary long distance carrier.

Non-Subscriber 1010288 Service is provided as specified in Section 7.2., following.
