Re: Carlos Ortiz v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No. F-2025-3056999

Dear Judge Gannon:

PPL Electric objects to the admission of Ortiz Exhibit 1 into the record. The exhibit is inherently unreliable, includes legal argument that is inappropriate for the evidentiary record, and requests relief that is outside of the scope of the Complaint.

The exhibit primarily consists of legal argument. The exhibit mischaracterizes Commission regulations and cites to cases without including full citations. The Complainants' characterizations of Commission regulations should not be admitted into the evidentiary record. Further, given the incomplete nature of the citations provided by the Complainant to caselaw, it is impossible to determine what cases the Complainant attempts to refer to and whether the cited cases exist. Further, the Complainant's legal argument is irrelevant to the underlying facts of the Complainant and should not be included in the evidentiary record.

Copies will be provided as indicated on the Certificate of Service.

Respectfully submitted,

Alice A. Wade
