RE: Robert Goeke v. Comcast Business Communications LLC
Docket No. C-2025-3055046
EMERGENCY MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO RESPOND TO OFFICIAL NOTICE

Dear Secretary Homsher:

This firm represents the respondent designated by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Comcast Business Communications LLC (“Comcast”), in the above-captioned matter.

On December 3, 2025, Administrative Law Judge John M. Coogan notified the parties of its intent to take official notice of numerous facts from other Commission decisions involving the respondent designated by the Commission in this case. The notice gave Comcast until December 17, 2025, to respond.

Given multiple pre-existing, time-sensitive obligations on the part of Comcast’s counsel, Comcast needs additional time to respond. To that end, we are enclosing Comcast’s Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Official Notice. Given the time-sensitivity of this request and Comcast’s impending deadline, Comcast files this motion on an emergency basis.

If you require additional information regarding this request, please contact me.

Respectfully,

MELISSA M. BLANCO

Re: Robert Goeke v. Comcast Business Communications LLC
Docket No. C-2025-3055046

Dear Administrative Law Judge Coogan:

This firm represents the respondent designated by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Comcast Business Communications LLC (“Comcast”), in the above-captioned matter.

Consistent with 52 Pa. Code § 1.15(a)(1) and (2), Comcast respectfully moves, on an urgent basis, for a 30-day extension to time to respond to this Court’s notification of its intent to take judicial notice of numerous facts (the “Judicial Notice Notification”). Comcast’s current deadline is December 17, 2025—five days from today.

Since issuance of the Judicial Notice Notification, counsel for Comcast has had multiple pre-existing, time-sensitive obligations, including two oral arguments before the Commonwealth Court. These commitments, coupled with the complexity of the issues and the upcoming holiday season, have significantly limited Comcast’s ability to prepare a thorough and complete response.

To enable Comcast sufficient time to address the Judicial Notice Notification, Comcast respectfully and urgently requests a 30-day extension of the current deadline. Comcast is enclosing its formal motion for the Court’s consideration.

Should the Court have any questions regarding this request, we are available at its convenience.

Respectfully,

MELISSA M. BLANCO

EMERGENCY MOTION OF COMCAST BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS LLC FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO OFFICIAL NOTICE

TO THE PENNSYLVANIA UTILITY COMMISSION:

In accordance with Section 1.15 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure, Comcast Business Communications LLC (“Comcast”), by and through its counsel, Obermayer Rebmann Maxwell & Hippel LLP, files this Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Official Notice. In connection with this Motion, Comcast avers as follows:

1. Given pre-existing deadlines and pre-planned vacations centered on the impending holiday season, Comcast respectfully requests a 30-day extension of time to respond to the Notification to the Parties of Official Notice, dated December 3, 2025.
2. On May 2, 2025, Complainant, Robert Goeke, filed a Formal Complaint with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (the “Commission”) against Comcast Business Communications LLC (“Comcast”).
3. On August 27, 2025, and again on October 22, 2025, Administrative Law Judge John M. Coogan held a Telephone Hearing Conference.

4. On December 3, 2025, the Court notified the parties of its intent to take official notice of numerous facts from filings in other PUC proceedings involving Comcast.

5. The facts center on Comcast's corporate structure.

6. The Official Notice gave Comcast until December 17, 2025, to respond.

7. When it received the Official Notice, counsel for Comcast was preparing for two complex oral arguments before the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania—one on December 8 and the other on December 10, 2025.

8. Counsel's pre-existing obligations relative to those two oral arguments, as well as the complexity implicated by the Official Notice, left counsel for Comcast with insufficient time to investigate the issues and prepare an adequate response.

9. To ensure that counsel for Comcast—and, by extension, Comcast itself—has a fair opportunity to respond, Comcast requests a 30-day extension of time to respond to the Official Notice.

10. Comcast contacted Mr. Goeke to ask for his consent to this Motion, but Mr. Goeke has not yet had an opportunity to return Comcast's call or opine on Comcast's request.

WHEREFORE, Comcast respectfully requests that the Commission grant its Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Official Notice and permit it an additional 30 days to respond to the Official Notice.

Respectfully submitted,
