MOTION OF FIRSTENERGY PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC COMPANY TO DISMISS THE FORMAL COMPLAINT OF EL ENCANTO BAKERY INC

TO THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION:

FirstEnergy Pennsylvania Electric Company, Met-Ed Rate District, (Respondent, FE PA, or Company), by and through its attorneys, Reger Rizzo and Darnall, LLP, files this Motion to Dismiss, pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.103. In support, the Respondent avers as follows:

I. Introduction

1. In this Motion, the Respondent seeks the dismissal of the Formal Complaint captioned El Encanto Bakery Inc v. FirstEnergy Pennsylvania Electric Company filed by Dilaria Herrera on behalf of El Encanto Bakery Inc (Complainant), a Pennsylvania business entity registered on or about October 26, 2024. As a Pennsylvania corporation with the Pennsylvania Bureau of Corporations, the Complainant is required at this stage of the proceeding to be represented by an attorney at law in accordance with Commission regulations, 52 Pa. Code §§ 1.21-1.23.

II. Factual Background

2. The Formal Complaint was filed against the Company on October 29, 2025, and relates to non-residential electric service in the Complainant's name to 830 Oley Street, Reading, Pennsylvania (Service Location) under Account No. 100161362197 (Account).

3. On November 18, 2025, the Company filed an Answer and New Matter denying the material allegations therein. In its Answer and New Matter, the Company alleged, inter alia, that the Complainant is a Pennsylvania corporation and not represented by an attorney as required by the Commission's regulations. A copy of the Complainant's corporate status with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is provided as Attachment 1.

4. A Hearing Notice, dated December 17, 2025, was issued for the Initial Call-in Telephonic Hearing on February 10, 2026, before the Honorable Alphonso Arnold (Judge Arnold).

5. As of the filing of this Motion, no attorney has filed an Entry of Appearance on behalf of the Complainant in the instant proceeding.

III. Corporations Must be Represented by Counsel

6. Representation before the Commission is governed by the Commission's regulations at 52 Pa. Code §§ 1.21-1.23. These regulations provide that "[i]n adversarial proceedings, partnerships, corporations, trusts, associations, agencies, political subdivisions and government entities shall be represented only by . . . an attorney." 52 Pa. Code § 1.21. An adversarial proceeding begins with the filing of an Answer. 52 Pa. Code § 1.8 New Fizon Catering, Inc. v. PECO Energy Company, Docket Nos. C-2008-2065498 and C-2008-2079076 (Order entered June 24, 2009).

7. A non-attorney owner/operator of a limited liability corporation may file a formal complaint pleading, without an attorney, but thereafter must be represented by counsel. Tyler Run, LLC v. Penelec, Docket No. C-200438888 (Order entered January 5, 2005) and Snyderville Community Development Corporation v. Philadelphia Gas Works, Docket No. C-20055032 (Order entered July 31, 2006).

8. The Commission's obligation to require attorneys in adversarial proceedings for parties other than individual pro se proceedings is well-settled:

In Pennsylvania, the Supreme Court is responsible for regulating the practice of law, and this Commission is bound by the Supreme Court's rules. The only persons authorized to practice law in Pennsylvania are as follows: (1) persons fully admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar; (2) persons admitted pro hac vice under Rule 301; and (3) persons qualified as certified legal interns under Rule 321. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Shorz v. Farrell, 327 Pa. 81, 193 A.20 (1937), held that if the nature of an administrative hearing is to determine questions of fact or interpretation of administrative law, then the hearing is of a judicial character. Any participation in such a hearing constitutes the practice of law. Accordingly, it would be unlawful to allow non attorney representation in adversarial proceedings before the Commission.

James and Judith Simon v. Franklin Water Company, Docket No. C-00956589 (Order entered January 29, 1996).

9. Consequently, a corporation that files a formal complaint with the Commission must obtain counsel to proceed with all other aspects of the proceeding, including, without limitation, responsive pleadings, discovery, testimony preparation, attendance at hearing, examination of witnesses and briefing.

10. At this point, the Company is required to incur the time and expense to prepare for a full evidentiary hearing without knowing if the Complainant will even be represented by counsel.

11. In order to minimize any further prejudice, time and/or expense by the Company, the Complainant should be ordered to have a Pennsylvania licensed attorney file an Entry of Appearance within ten (10) days of the issued order, or the proceedings will be dismissed.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, FirstEnergy Pennsylvania Electric Company, respectfully requests that the Commission:

a) Enter an order directing the Complainant to have a Pennsylvania licensed attorney enter an appearance on behalf of El Encanto Bakery Inc within ten (10) days of the issued order; and

b) Dismiss the Formal Complaint in this proceeding if a Pennsylvania licensed attorney does not enter an appearance on behalf of El Encanto Bakery Inc in compliance with any applicable order.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: December 18, 2025
