Re: McDaniel v. Columbia Gas of PA, Inc.

Docket No. C-2025-3056521

Dear Parties:

On October 15, 2025, Columbia Gas of PA, Inc. (Columbia) filed a Certificate of Satisfaction with the Commission and also served a copy of the Certificate of Satisfaction on the Complainant. Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.24(c), Complainant's written objection, if any, to the Certificate of Satisfaction was due on or before October 27, 2025.¹

It has come to my attention that through an inadvertent internal processing error, Complainant's Objection was accepted despite it not being timely filed. Because it was untimely, it should have been rejected. As stated above, Complainant's Objection to the Certificate of Satisfaction was due October 27, 2025. However, Complainant filed her Objection on November 13, 2025. Therefore, the time to file an objection against the Certificate of Satisfaction had expired and Complainant's Objection should not have been accepted nor processed.

In light of the above, Complainant's Objection to Columbia's Certificate of Satisfaction is hereby rejected. A copy of this Secretarial Letter will be served on all Parties of Record and added to the docket. The rejection of Complainant's untimely Objection to Columbia's Certificate of Satisfaction does not preclude Complainant from filing a new Formal Complaint.

Very truly yours,

Encls: Blank Formal Complaint Form

¹ Complainant had ten days to file an objection to the Certificate of Satisfaction. 52 Pa. Code § 5.24(c). However, the tenth day of the objection period was October 25, 2025, which is a Saturday. Because the Commission offices are closed on Saturdays, the Complainant's Objection was due the next day the Commission was open for business. 52 Pa. Code § 1.12(a).
