Subject: Waiver Request of Classified Advertising

I am requesting a waiver from advertising in the Daily News and Philadelphia Inquirer for a third time. Bakey Enterprises LLC dba Bakey Energy Consulting is a licensed electric and gas marketer in PA, operating as a sole proprietor with over 40 years of energy experience and professional engineering licenses in PA, NJ, and DE. When starting out, I limited my application to three utility zones due to budget constraints, obtaining electricity and natural gas licenses in November 2022 and October 2023, respectively, and advertising as required at a total cost of $5,774.49 with no protests received.

In January, I applied to expand my license to additional utilities and advertised in six more newspapers for $1,864.79. I was informed that to add UGIDC, I would need a third round of ads in the Daily News and Inquirer costing $2,912.50, even though UGIDC territory does not overlap with their circulation area (see attached map), and I already hold a license with PECO Energy, the relevant provider.

Therefore, I am seeking a waiver from this advertising requirement, as I am already licensed in the region and there is no legal mandate for repeated advertising. Please advise on the next steps.

Sincerely;

Andrew Bakey, PE
President
