COMPLAINT MILESTONE PAGE

Informal Complaint Submission

SUBMITTED: 12.09.2025

REASONS: Multiple calls to PECO Customer Support immediately after, unexpectedly, receiving the first statements at the end of November, lead nowhere. Agents had no idea what I was talking about so, obviously, could not explain what was happening, why it was happening or what could be done. What was even worse, no supervisors were ever present and/or available to try and escalate to someone who could help. Repeated requests for a supervisor return call went unfulfilled despite PECO supposedly hiring dozens of additional resources to try to address this massive issue.

Ultimately, filing a complaint was my only outlet to try and get this problem that went well above and beyond anything PECO laid out in the spam emails I was able to find.

SEPARATOR PAGE

The only communications that could be found from PECO came from a “No Reply” email address (No Physical Mailings Through the USPS) and ended up in Spam folder.

Informal Complaint Closed

RECEIVED: 02.02.2026

STATUS: Identified that PECO failed to comply with multiple requests for response and reporting. Despite this fact, the case was closed as “technically” late billing is allowed. At this time, I was notified of my right to appeal and given the fact that PECO completely ignored me when I tried to initially resolve this, in addition to failing to communicate with the PAPUC, filing an intent to appeal along with a formal complaint was recommended.

STEPS TAKEN:

- Intent to Appeal submitted 02.02.2026
