Regulatory Assessor Email/Voicemail Received

RECEIVED: 02.27.2026

STATUS: Multiple communications received that indicate completely inaccurate information including my not being open to a payment plan which is EACTLY what I want to negotiate but it needs to be established to not be burdensome because of PECO's failures while also considering any restitution/credit that may be extended to me. In addition, she is trying to strongarm me with the "threat" of a one-time courtesy when it has already been communicated previously that that is available.

FORMAL PUC COMPLAINT F-2026-3060576

From: Lumpkin-Ramage, Felicia:(PECO) (felicia.lumpkin@exeloncorp.com)

To: sirtag@verizon.net

Date: Friday, February 27, 2026 at 05:54 PM EST

Good afternoon,

I am the Regulatory Assessor assigned to your formal PUC complaint F-2026-3060576. This email is an attempt to contact you regarding your billing concerns.

You previously filed an informal PUC complaint under BCS 4108240.

The PUC decision for BCS 4108240 was a dismissal and determined the company has the right to rebill for any previously unbilled usage.

Your total balance is $9,911.45 including $8,582 due 3/16/2026. The last payment received was for $358 on 2/14/2024.

As a one-time courtesy, company is willing to discuss a payment agreement to satisfy your complaint. While I can understand your frustration with not receiving monthly billing due to a company related issue, we have confirmed that your billing has been based on actual property usage. Based on your complaint, I understand that you are not interested in a payment agreement and believe a conversation would be necessary to clarify how I can best assist you if a payment agreement is not desired.

Please advise of the best time to contact you, thank you.
