

I received notification that my insurance company failed to provide Form E and Form H to the commission. My insurance company initially filed this and there was an issue with the name matching the application. After speaking to them, they went in and refiled the forms. I assumed that the forms and documentation were received and never heard anything about it until I received the notification of dismissal.

Subject: PUC dismissal notice

Good Morning Lorie

I received this letter today from the PAPUC regarding dismissal of our application for PUC licensing.

It states they never received the correct Form E and Form H from our insurance company.

Can you please look into this?

Thanks,

Susan M. Price
