RESTRICTIVE AMENDMENT

AND NOW, comes Applicant, Humane Care Transportation Service LLC (“Applicant”), and Joint Protestants Bux-Mont Transportation, Inc. (“Bux-Mont”), Easton Coach Company (“Easton”), Suburban Transit Network, Inc. (“TransNet”), and Tri County Transit Service, Inc. (“Tri County”) (“Joint Protestants”), by and through their respective attorneys, and file this Restrictive Amendment and Stipulation in the above-captioned matter as follows:

1. The above-captioned Application is hereby amended to clearly identify and specify the territory requested so that the authority sought shall read as follows:

For the right to begin to transport, as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, persons in paratransit service,

- a. From points in the City and County of Philadelphia to points in Pennsylvania and return, without restriction; and
- b. From points in Montgomery County to points in Pennsylvania and return, limited to those individuals who are enrolled with the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services to receive home care services with Humane Home Care Agency as the provider, and only for those individuals who receive personal care services (PCS) at the time that they are also receiving transportation services from Humane Home Care Agency. The foregoing limitation in paragraph (b) shall not apply to the transportation of veterans through contract by Veterans Affairs (the VA), and such veterans may be transported regardless of those specific veterans’ enrollment with the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services to receive home care services or personal care services (PCS) from Humane Home Care Agency.

2. Based upon the Restrictive Amendment set forth in Paragraph 1 above, and conditioned upon its acceptance and approval by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (“Commission”) and any order issued being consistent therewith, Joint Protestants agree to withdraw their respective Protests to the Application as amended, subject to the following two conditions and requirements: (i) in the event that any aspect of this Restrictive Amendment is rejected by the Commission for any reason, the Protests shall be deemed immediately reinstated, this proceeding shall be scheduled for hearing to permit Joint Protestants to present evidence in an on-the-record proceeding in opposition to approval of the Application, and neither the Restrictive Amendment, nor the fact that the parties agreed to submit it to the Commission, shall be used against any party in any subsequent hearing or proceeding; and (ii) in the event that any aspect of this Restrictive Amendment is rejected by the Commission for any reason, the Joint Protestants shall have the right to request reconsideration before the Commission or to appeal before any and all appropriate courts, or both, and in any such proceedings Applicant shall not raise any objections as to party status or standing of the Joint Protestants.

3. The Restrictive Amendment set forth in Paragraph 1 is in the public interest because it will allow the Applicant to provide paratransit service in a manner consistent with its operating objectives, and it will resolve the Protests to the Application while avoiding the time and expense of further litigation.

4. Joint Protestants desire to remain a party of record so as to receive copies of any orders or other documentation issued by the Commission in the proceeding.
