Re: Name: O'Brien's Fuel & Service, LLC / Utility Code: 8926101 / Docket# A-2023-3039436

Hello,

We are in receipt of the tentative order regarding our PUC# for not being in compliance with the annual assessment report.

We ask that you please give us a chance to correct our mistake on these filings and keep our PUC number valid.

The form to be filed was confusing to us as it lists revenue from property or household goods or passengers. We do not haul our own property or household goods or any passengers.

We haul construction material for a construction company from one site to another and charge them an hourly rate. We don't pay for or receive money for the product hauled. This is where the confusion came in since it isn't our property. If I understand correctly now you want the revenue received for our charges to do the hauling of property regardless if it is ours or the other companies'.

I have submitted an updated/re-done 2025 assessment report online. A copy of the online re-filed report is enclosed with this letter. I hope this is now correct and will be sure to file it accordingly each year.

If this is also not correct if someone could reach out to us and explain we would greatly appreciate it.

Sincerely,

James E. O'Brien
