RE: Unity Hauling, Inc., Utility Code 70772, PA PUC Number A-00122491

Dear Mr. Homsher:

I writing to request permission to continue to operate under the above-reference PA PUC Number. Although hauling one's own material and road construction material are exempt for tax purposes, the PA PUC Number signifies that Unity Hauling, Inc. is, licensed, insured and compliant with state regulations including drug and alcohol testing, providing key advantages in safety, legality, and business credibility. It also confirms that the business has met strict state operational standards, including mandated insurance coverage, vehicle safety, and service quality, promoting safer operations, which is highly favorable and desirable when actively seeking hauling opportunities.

Thank you for your consideration and I look forward to a positive determination regarding the continuation of use of PA PUC Number A-00122491.

Sincerely,

Angela C. Foster, President
