RCVD PUC SEC BUR

Matthew L. Homsher, Secretary Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission

Dear Mr. Homsher,

I am writing regarding my PUC number 8919371, which I have held since 2016—nearly ten years. Obtaining this number required significant effort, but I did so to ensure that our business could legally run loads offered within the State of Pennsylvania.

For a few years, my assessment reports reflected zero dollars, not because we were avoiding responsibility, but because no PA-to-PA loads were available. Despite that, the State of Pennsylvania still collected fuel taxes, URC, and IRP/tag fees from us. Much of this period overlapped with the disruptions caused by COVID-19.

Even during the most difficult time of my life—when my husband contracted COVID and pneumonia on September 14th and passed away on November 17th, 2021—we continued to pay fuel taxes for the third and fourth quarter on 2021. Our truck did not run again until after his service in December 2021. Then in January 2022 my son left his job to step into his father's role so the business could continue and PA state still collected fuel taxes for the first quarter of 2022.

I have always used my PUC number solely to run PA-to-PA loads legally. I have never used it to avoid paying taxes on parts, repairs, or anything else. We followed every rule, stayed compliant, and operated with integrity. That is why it feels deeply unfair to now be penalized.

I hope that as the economy improves, more loads will become available and I can continue using my PUC number without having to go through the process of obtaining a new one. I am proud to display that number on my trucks. I even sold our trailer to repair my husband's truck, purchased another truck, and proudly placed the PUC number on it as well. I recently finished paying off that truck loan—only to receive this notice.

I would like to offer a suggestion: if maintaining a PUC number requires additional revenue, perhaps a small annual fee—such as $25—could be implemented. With 865 carriers listed on the paperwork, this would generate approximately $21,625 for the Commission each year. This seems far more reasonable than revoking numbers from carriers who have remained compliant.

Lastly, I was unaware of the meeting regarding this issue because I live in Maryland, not Pennsylvania, and did not receive notice.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Rose Lloyd
