Appellate did not agree to e-filing as a means of receiving filings or to move forward. All emailing and e-filings are in violation of appellate Due Process V Amendment Rights .

Non of the filing or attachments have been properly sent due to failure to provide enlarged print and physical hard copy of filings orders etc.

Appellate move for change of venue due to bias prejudice and conflict of interest because if the influence relationship between Mr. Ford and the director and over the the appeals department who repeated bogus allegations by Mr. Ford director of PUC.

All filings by the opposing side is defected due to V Amendment Rights violation and should be stricken and the order vacated
