PENNSYLVANIA VEHICLE REGISTRATION

PennDOT is proud to provide you with your new registration credential.

PLEASE SIGN YOUR CREDENTIAL - To validate your credential, you need to sign your name in ink as indicated below. The registration must be available when the vehicle is in use.

DID YOU CHANGE YOUR ADDRESS? - It is important that we have your current address, and the law requires that any changes be reported to PennDOT within 15 days. Please notify PennDOT of any address change by writing to: PennDOT, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Harrisburg, PA 17104-2516. Please include the following information with your change of address request: your full street address (including P.O. box number, rural delivery, route number or apartment number, if applicable), city, state and zip code. Please remember P.O. box numbers may be used in addition to the actual address, but cannot be used as the only address. You may also change your address online at Online Services Center at WWW.DMV.PA.GOV.

PENNSYLVANIA'S LITTERING LAWS - As a reminder, Pennsylvania has laws against littering on our roadways and on public and private property. Under law, PennDOT is required to include this statement on vehicle credentials to remind motorists of littering laws. By signing your registration credential, you acknowledge that you have received notice of this provision.

Section 3709 of the Pennsylvania Vehicle Code provides for a fine of up to $300 for dropping, throwing or depositing, upon any highway, or upon any other public or private property without the consent of the owner thereof or into or on the waters of this Commonwealth from a vehicle, any waste paper, sweepings, ashes, household waste, glass, metal, refuse or rubbish or any dangerous or detrimental substance, or permitting any of the preceding without immediately removing such items or causing their removal.

For any violation of Section 3709, you may be subject to a fine of up to $300 upon conviction, including any violation resulting from the conduct of any other persons operating, in possession of or present within the vehicle with your permission, if you do not with reasonable certainty identify the driver of the vehicle at the time the violation occurred.

Form employees refrain from any behavior that might be harmful to the employee, coworkers, and / or Broad Street Movers LLC, or that might be viewed unfavorably by our clients or by the public at large. Remember, customers judge the entire company based on our employees' conduct, hospitality, enthusiasm, and pride. A moment of carelessness or discourtesy may break down the goodwill that we have been building for years.

YOUR EXPECTATIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- Obey all laws, follow all guidelines, policies, procedures, and keep informed of policy and procedural changes.
- Be courteous and helpful. Make certain that everyone you encounter, over the telephone and in person receives consideration and superior service.
- Be a good listener. Whether you are dealing with a customer or an employee, listen to their point of view. Understand occasional frustration or anger.
- Ask questions. Ask your supervisor any questions you may have about your job and company guidelines. Ask your customers questions that will help you help them.
- Watch your language. Profanity, obscene gestures, telling inappropriate jokes, and any other offensive behaviors are not permitted around customers, your coworkers, or anytime you are representing Broad Street Movers LLC.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- When an employee violates Broad Streets Movers LLC's standards, his / her supervisor is responsible for acting promptly to correct the situation and to prevent further occurrences for mutual benefit. Often, disciplinary actions are taken in a progressive manner in order to provide the opportunity to correct his / her behavior and to meet work standards. Are progressive steps are the following:
- Verbal Warning: We will make a note in your personnel file.
- Written Warning: We will have you sign a statement of the infraction. That statement will be placed in your personnel file.
- Suspension without Pay, pending termination, followed by a Performance Improvement Plan: We will go over a detailed plan with you so you know what you have to do in order to keep your job. Failure to meet with us to discuss your PIP will result in termination.
- Termination: We will end your employment with Broad Street Movers, LLC.
- Any and all of these steps may be omitted, as we deem appropriate upon review of the circumstances. There may also be offenses, which are deemed sufficiently serious to result in immediate termination. These may include, but are not limited to, acts of violence, fighting, theft, abandonment of position, breach of confidentiality, carrying weapons of any sort, falsification of records, and the possession, use, sale, purchase, or distribution of any illegal drugs / substances, drug paraphernalia, or alcohol.

 I hereby acknowledge that I have received and reviewed a copy of Broad Street Movers LLC Employee Manual. I have been advised that I must read the Employee Manual and abide by its terms as a condition of continued employment and have agreed to do so. I further understand that nothing in this Employee Manual constitutes a contract, express or implied and that Broad Street Movers LLC, in its sole discretion, may modify, alter, delete, suspend or discontinue any part or parts of the policies in this manual at any time, with or without prior notice to its employees. Unless otherwise specified, any such change to the Employee Manual shall apply to existing as well as future employees. I understand that the Human Resources Department is responsible for developing and implementing personnel policies. Policies or procedures in this manual may change with approval of the appropriate Employer officer. I also understand that I cannot rely on or otherwise interpret a statement or promise by a supervisor, manager or department head as constituting a change in policy, nor will any such statement or promise constitute an agreement between the Employer and an employee.
