SECOND PREHEARING CONFERENCE MEMORANDUM OF JAMES ROCKIS AND ROCKIS ENTITIES

James E. Rockis, individually; Quarter Pine Tree Farm Christmas Shoppe, LLC; and J.E. Rockis Rental & Supply, Inc. (“Petitioners”), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby file this Prehearing Conference Memorandum, pursuant to the Prehearing Conference Orders issued by Administrative Law Judge John M. Coogan in the above-referenced matters.

1. History of Proceeding:

NextEra Energy Transmission MidAtlantic, Inc. (“NEET MA”), filed its Applications in the above-referenced proceedings on March 3, 2026. Petitioners filed their Petition to Intervene on April 30, 2026.

2. Issues Petitioners Intend to Present:

a) The detrimental effect that the proposed HV line would have on Petitioners' unique land use by taking valuable acreage from tree and seed orchards that represent long-term investments having high worth and genetic value.

b) The detrimental effect that the proposed HV line would have on area plant and wildlife habitats, terrain, landscape, and scenic and wilderness areas.

c) Whether reasonable alternatives to Applicant's MidAtlantic Resiliency Link ("MARL") Project have been adequately considered in light of its primary purpose to provide power for data centers in Virginia.

d) Whether any potential approvals by the Commission should be conditional, subject to the approvals of NEET MA's Applications in all other states through which the line will traverse, before any siting and construction is finally approved by the Commission.

e) Confirmation by NEET MA that if its proposed route is rejected, it would be required to (1) amend the application with a newly selected route (which could include one of the alternative routes identified in the siting application or a different route), and (2) provide landowners along the amended selected route additional notice and an opportunity to be heard on the amended application.

3. Listing of Proposed Witnesses:

James E. Rockis
PO Box 4183
Star City, WV 26504

The subject matter of Mr. Rockis's testimony will be centered on the detrimental effects that the choice and approval of Alternative Route C would have on his land use.

Petitioners reserve the right to name other or additional witnesses as the issues in this matter are further developed.

4. List of exhibits or documents that Petitioners intend to present at the hearing in this proceeding:

Unknown at this time.

5. Proposed Litigation Schedule:

Petitioners defer to Applicant and other primary litigants in this matter to propose a litigation schedule.

6. Consolidation of Proceedings:

In light of the Commission's Order issued June 1, 2026, and the position of the Office of Consumer Advocate thereto, Petitioners are of the opinion that the two Application proceedings should no longer remain consolidated and should be handled separately for purposes of litigation.

Respectfully submitted,

COHEN SEGLIAS PALLAS
GREENHALL & FURMAN PC
