INTERIM ORDER #2

This interim order grants the Office of Consumer Advocate’s request for modification of service requirements related to certain Preliminary Objections and related Answers to Preliminary Objections.

ABBREVIATED HISTORY OF THE PROCEEDING¹

On May 21, 2026, Transource PA filed a separate Application seeking the Commission’s approval for the siting and construction of a proposed new electric substation and double-circuit Rice-Ringgold 230 kV electric transmission line and related facilities in portions of Franklin County, Pennsylvania (Siting Application), along with a Petition for Confirmation of an Exemption from Local Zoning Regulation and for the Construction of Buildings (Zoning Exemption Petition).

Notice of the Siting Application and Zoning Petition was published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin on June 13, 2026, and republished on August 15, 2026. 56 Pa.B. 3592; 56 Pa.B. 5500.

On June 25, 2026, OCA filed a Protest to the Siting Application and an Answer to the Zoning Exemption Petition. Following OCA's June 25 filings, through the date of this Interim Order, various other parties – including more than 150 pro se individuals – filed Protests or Petitions to Intervene at the Siting Application and/or Zoning Exemption Petition dockets.

In response to many of the Protests and Petitions, Transource PA filed Preliminary Objections based upon i.e., allegations that the Protestant or Petitioner lacks standing to raise any issues for adjudication by the Commission. Transource PA also argued that individual ratepayers are “adequately represented by the OCA.”

In response to these certain Preliminary Objections, the OCA filed Answers.

On September 14, 2026, the OCA made an urgent request (Sept. 14 Request) that we utilize our discretionary power under Section 1.2(c) of Commission regulations to modify certain service requirements found in Section 1.54 for this proceeding. 52 Pa. Code §§ 1.2(c), 1.54. Specifically, the OCA requested we modify the service obligations this way:

When a party files a Preliminary Objection to an individual pro se Complainant, and another party wishes to file an Answer, the party wishing to file an Answer need only to serve hard copies through first class mail on the non pro se complainants and the individual for whom the Preliminary Objection is directed toward, to the extent that they have not already agreed to receive service of documents electronically.

Sept. 14 Request. On September 15, 2026, the OCA further communicated an additional modification request (Sept. 15 Request) following a discussion between the OCA and Transource PA. Specifically, the OCA communicated Transource PA has no objection to the OCA's Sept. 14 Request, so long as we modify the service obligations to include this reciprocal clause:

When a party files a Preliminary Objection (PO) against a pro se Protestant/Intervenor, the ALJs also authorize the Party filing the Preliminary Objection to serve the Public Advocates electronically, the Party to whom the PO is directed by email (if provided) or otherwise by mail, and serve electronically any Protestant/Intervenor that has provided an email address. The party filing the PO would not be required to serve the PO by mail to Protestant/Intervenors who have not provided email addresses.

Sept. 15 Request. The OCA indicated that it does not object to the proposed reciprocal clause.

The Office of Consumer Advocate's request for modification of certain service requirements is ripe for discussion and disposition.

DISCUSSION

Section 1.54 of Commission regulations provides that parties may serve pleadings, submittals, briefs, and other documents electronically to parties who have agreed to accept service in such a manner. 52 Pa. Code § 1.54.

Here, more than 150 pro se individuals have filed Protests or Petitions to Intervene. Reviewing the current composition of the service list in this proceeding, we note that most pro se individuals have not elected electronic service.

The OCA averred serving its Answers to Preliminary Objections upon every individual on the service list via First-Class Mail is “costly, time consuming, and an inefficient use of resources.” Sept. 14 Request. As a remedy to this quandary, the OCA and Transource PA postulated complementary modifications to certain service requirements of Preliminary Objections and Answers thereto, as previously fleshed out above.

The OCA averred its Sept. 14 Request is a reasonable request, due to the nature of the Preliminary Objections filed thus far have been directed to individual pro se litigants and do not directly impact the main issues of these proceedings. The OCA further submitted that because of the nature of these Preliminary Objections, for individuals not subject to a Preliminary Objection, the individuals are receiving documents for matters in these cases that are not directly related to them or the proceedings at large. The OCA surmised individuals not subject to a Preliminary Objection will not be disadvantaged by not receiving these documents via First-Class Mail. We agree.

We therefore conclude that the proposed modifications to service requirements are reasonable and will provide the parties with cost, time and resource savings without disadvantaging any other party, and will adopt the proposed modifications as indicated in the Ordering paragraphs below.

ORDER

THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED:

(1) That, when a party files a Preliminary Objection against a pro se litigant, the filing party may: (a) serve the statutory advocates electronically; (b) serve the party to whom the Preliminary Objection is directed by First-Class Mail and electronically, unless the party elected electronic service; and, (c) serve any other Protestant/Intervenor who has provided an email address, electronically; however, the party filing the Preliminary Objection is not required to serve the Preliminary Objection by mail to Protestant/Intervenors who have not provided an email address.

(2) That each certificate of service accompanying a Preliminary Objection must accurately reflect upon whom the document was served and the method of service used.

(3) That, when a party files a Preliminary Objection directed to an individual pro se litigant, and another party wishes to file an Answer, the party wishing to file an Answer need only to serve hard copies through First-Class Mail on the non pro se complainants and the individual for whom the Preliminary Objection is directed toward, to the extent that they have not already agreed to receive service of documents electronically.

(4) That each certificate of service accompanying an Answer to a Preliminary Objection must accurately reflect upon whom the document was served and the method of service used.

INTERIM ORDER #2

This interim order grants the Office of Consumer Advocate’s request for modification of service requirements related to certain Preliminary Objections and related Answers to Preliminary Objections.

ABBREVIATED HISTORY OF THE PROCEEDING²

On May 21, 2026, Transource Pennsylvania, LLC (Transource PA) filed an Application with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, for All of the Necessary Authority, Approvals and Certificate of Public Convenience to Begin to Offer, Render, Furnish and/or Supply Transmission Service in Portions of Franklin County, Pennsylvania Necessary to Operate Transmission Facilities for Project 9A West, pursuant to Section 1101 of the Public Utility Code, 66 Pa.C.S. § 1101, to commence the provision of transmission electric service as a public utility in portions of Franklin County, Pennsylvania (CPC Application).

Notice of the CPC Application was published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin on June 13, 2026, and republished on August 15, 2026. 56 Pa.B. 3593; 56 Pa.B. 5502.

² For a more comprehensive history of the proceeding, see Interim Order #1.

On June 26, 2026, the Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA) filed an Amended Protest to Transource PA's CPC Application. Following OCA's Amended Protest filing through the date of this Interim Order, various other parties – including more than 150 pro se individuals – filed Protests or Petitions to Intervene.

In response to many of the Protests and Petitions, Transource PA filed Preliminary Objections based upon i.e., allegations that the Protestant or Petitioner lacks standing to raise any issues for adjudication by the Commission. Transource PA also argued that individual ratepayers are “adequately represented by the OCA.”

In response to these certain Preliminary Objections, the OCA filed Answers.

On September 14, 2026, the OCA made an urgent request (Sept. 14 Request) that we utilize our discretionary power under Section 1.2(c) of Commission regulations to modify certain service requirements found in Section 1.54 for this proceeding. 52 Pa. Sept. 14 Request. On September 15, 2026, the OCA further communicated an additional modification request (Sept. 15 Request) following a discussion between the OCA and Transource PA. Specifically, the OCA communicated Transource PA has no objection to the OCA's Sept. 14 Request, so long as we modify the service obligations to include this reciprocal clause:

When a party files a Preliminary Objection (PO) against a pro se Protestant/Intervenor, the ALJs also authorize the Party filing the Preliminary Objection to serve the Public Advocates electronically, the Party to whom the PO is directed by email (if provided) or otherwise by mail, and serve electronically any Protestant/Intervenor that has provided an email address. The party filing the PO would not be required to serve the PO by mail to Protestant/Intervenors who have not provided email addresses.

Sept. 15 Request. The OCA indicated that it does not object to the proposed reciprocal clause.

The OCA averred its Sept. 14 Request is a reasonable request, due to the nature of the Preliminary Objections filed thus far have been directed to individual pro se litigants and do not directly impact the main issues of proceeding.
